-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

Art Unit: 3653

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1 through 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1 and 7 appear to be incomplete and omit critical subject matter in that the preamble of these claims recite an optical device for detecting the edge of a sheet, but the body of these claims recites only the element of an extension which comprises a part of the complete device.

In claim 2 line 2, it is not clearly understood to what the recitation "a pivoting element is referring. This recitation appears to be defining the same element recited as the "extension" in claim 1, from which claim 2 depends, since both elements are defined as pivoting about two pivots.

In claim 2 line 3, the language "the two rotation pivots" lacks proper antecedent basis. Accordingly, it is unclear if such language refers to the previously recited pivots of claim 1 or two additional pivots.

In claim 4 line 2, the recitation "the line" lacks antecedent basis. Accordingly, it is not understood to what such recitation is referring.

In claim 4 line 4, the recitation "the rotation pivots" lacks antecedent basis.

In claim 4 lines 4-5, the language "the lower ends of the respective grooves" lacks proper antecedent basis. Accordingly, it is not understood where such lower ends are located as the position and extent of the grooves has not been clearly defined in the claims.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Masuyuki et al (UK 2 299 070 A).

Note the extension comprising elements 18 and 24 which pivot about two pivots 13 and 25. See Figures 1, 2(a) and 2(b).

5. Claims 1 through 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based. See Pannu v. Storz Instruments Inc., 258 F.3d 1366, 59 USPQ2d 1597 (Fed. Cir. 2001); Hester Industries, Inc. v. Stein, Inc., 142 F.3d 1472, 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Clement, 131 F.3d 1464, 45 USPQ2d 1161 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Ball Corp. v. United States, 729 F.2d 1429, 1436, 221 USPQ 289, 295 (Fed. Cir. 1984). A broadening aspect is present in the reissue which was not present in the application for patent. The record of the application for the patent shows that the broadening aspect (in the reissue) relates to claim subject matter that applicant previously surrendered during the prosecution of the application. Accordingly, the narrow scope of the claims in the patent was not an error within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 251, and the broader scope of claim subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent cannot be recaptured by the filing of the present reissue application.

The amendment of claims 1 and 7 to remove the word "simultaneously" constitutes recapture since the requirement of the extension to oscillate simultaneously on two pivots was incorporated into the claims for patentability.
